

Coming to Carolina:
Jewish Life in an Evolving South

Thursday, Oct. 21

2:00 UNC/Chapel Hill Walking Tour, Carolina Inn
6:00 SJHS Board Meeting

Friday, Oct. 22

8:30 Bus from Carolina Inn
9:30-11:30 Museum of History (Down Home: Jewish Life in North Carolina exhibition)
12:00-2:30 NC Museum of Art Judaic Art Gallery tour, luncheon
3:00-4:30 Duke Center for Jewish Studies reception, Eric Meyers; tour of Duke Judaic collection
6:30 Bus to Judea Reform Congregation, Durham
7:00 Shabbat dinner
8:00 Judea Reform Shabbat service: Rabbi Laura Lieber, Duke University Professor of Religion,
"Build a House, Plant a Garden: Putting Down Roots in an Unsettled World"

Saturday, Oct. 23

8:00-9:00 Shabbat service, UNC-Chapel Hill Hillel
9:00-10:30 Panel: "Civil War and Reconstruction," Dale Rosengarten, moderator
Adam Mendelsohn, "Sewing the Thin Gray Line: The Jews Who Made the Uniforms for the Union and Confederacy"
Stuart Rockoff, "'The Mysterious Death of Marx Schoenberg: Jews & the Politics of Reconstruction in Ascension Parish, Louisiana"
Anton Hieke, "'Aus Nordcarolina': The Jewish South in German Newspapers, 1860-1880"
10:45-12:00 Yaakov Ariel, "Jews, Christians, North, South: What was New about Christian-Jewish Relations in the American South between the Civil War and World War I?" Bryan Stone, moderator
12:00-1:00 Lunch & Official Welcome, Eli Evans Honorary Chair
1:00-2:15 Stephen Whitfield, "The American South and the Shadow of Nazism," Jonathan Boyarin, moderator
2:30-3:30 Panel: "The South and the Jewish Race: World War II to the Post-War," Eric Goldstein, moderator
Robert Drake, "Kristallnacht in the Press: South (Greensboro), Midwest, East, and Southwest"
Dan Puckett, "The Travel Diaries of Rabbi Milton Grafman and Pastor Charles Bell: Two Southerners Confront Nazi Germany"
Edward Shapiro, "Race and Anti-Semitism: The Case of George Armstrong"
4:00-5:30 Reception at Wilson Library, UNC, southern Judaica exhibition, including Mordecai Family Papers of the Southern Historical Collection
6:00 Dinner on your own

7:30 "Down Home: Jewish Life in North Carolina" documentary film, 111 Carroll Hall, UNC, The Sylvia and Irving Margolis Lecture on the Jewish Experience in the American South, sponsored by the Carolina Center for Jewish Studies: Filmmakers panel: Marcie Ferris, moderator; Steve Channing, Lue Simopolous, and Leonard Rogoff

Sunday, Oct. 24

8:30-9:00 SJHS annual meeting

9:00-10:30 Meet the Authors: Barbara Bonfield, Bryan Stone, Jean Roseman, Adam Mendelsohn, Leonard Rogoff; Mark Bauman, moderator

10:45-12:00 "Jewish Community Relations," Lee Shai Weissbach, moderator

Seth Epstein: "From Objects to Agents of Tolerance: Jews and Ideas of Difference in Asheville, NC, 1898-1950"

Jean Roseman, "Nashville and Its Jews: A Fundamental Bond"

Rosie Moosnick, "More than Counterwork: Arab and Jewish Women Storekeepers in Kentucky"

12:00 Buffet lunch, Adjournment